

Renee Heap Robinson

November 11, 1931 ~ July 13, 2023

Renee Robinson was born in 1931 in Freedom Wyoming to Clarence and Bertha Heap. She grew up in Star Valley and later moved to Salt Lake. She was married to her best friend, Paul Robinson, for 45 years. Renee worked at Kmart for 15 years until she was forced to retire at 80 due to store closures. She lived independently for 29 years. Renee enjoyed getting together with family and lunches with her best friend, Shirley.

She died peacefully in her sleep on 7/13/23. She was very fortunate to leave this world the way she wanted. Renee achieved her goal of living in her own house and sleeping in her own bed to the very end. She woke up in a world full of loved ones who departed before her.

Renee was survived by Toni Lee Korff (Randy), Tamara Melvin (Jeff), Mark Robinson (Terry), Greg Robinson (Linda), 26 grandchildren and 28 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by Paul Robinson (husband), Van Robinson (son), Terry Duggan (daughter), Venna Norris (sister), Opal Turner (sister), Shane Heap (brother), Joseph Heap (brother) and Boyd Heap (brother).
