

Rhett J. Millecam

July 10, 1961 ~ April 18, 2022

Rhett J. Millecam, 60 years old, passed away at home in Salt Lake City, Utah of pulmonary hypertension. He is survived by his mother Bonnie Jenkins Millecam, his step-mother Connie Millecam, his step-brother Gregory Baxendale (Elizabeth), his brother-in-law Wayne Merkley, sister-in-law Vicki McKinney and nieces and nephew Melissa Merkley Goyette (Michael), Courtney McKinney Watt (John), and Brett Millecam (Elizabeth) and many beloved family members. He was predeceased by his father Don L. Millecam, brother Randy Millecam and sister Robyn Millecam Merkley.

Rhett was born in Vernal, Utah and attended schools there as well as Wasatch Academy in Mt. Pleasant and the University of Utah. He grew up surrounded by parents who owned restaurants. He pursued that lifelong career as a chef working in Vernal, Deer Valley, and Salt Lake City. Rhett loved cooking with his father at many family get togethers. He enjoyed the outdoors, skiing, fishing and was an avid Utes and Jazz fan. Rhett was also a lifelong Jimmy Buffet fan. He was enamored with the Parrot Head community and all that revolved around the tropical lifestyle.

He will be remembered for his fun, witty personality. He had a kind caring soul, was energetic and passionate about his work. The family wishes to thank the doctors at the University of Utah and Martindale Clinic who cared for him during the past years.
