Sherrie Lynne Heilbut Summers

November 28, 1952 ~ July 17, 2018

Sherrie Lynne Heilbut Summers, born 28 November 1952 at Fort Huachuca, Arizona died Tuesday, 17 July 2018 at Sandy, Utah. She was the daughter of Dick and Pearl Heilbut, wife of Carter "E" Summers, mother of seven children and grandmother of 27.

She hosted Sunday dinner each week for all those who could come. It was her greatest joy to be with her loved ones. Sherrie grew up in Salt Lake City, Utah where she graduated from Brighton High and Brigham Young University. She taught piano for 25 years and found great joy in her service to others. Her life was spent in doing what she could to strengthen the family. She interviewed many relatives and authored over ten volumes of family history books containing ancestor stories and pictures. The final years of her life found her serving as ward historian and ward organist. She tried to do her best as her health declined with metastatic breast cancer and appreciated the support of her loving husband, family, friends, and medical teams.

Survived by her husband, parents, siblings/spouses, children/spouses, and grandchildren/spouse. Preceded in death by a stillborn grandson.

Funeral services will be Thursday, July 26, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. at the Silver Mesa Ward, 8909 South 1700 East, Sandy, with a viewing at 9:30 a.m. There will also be a viewing Wednesday night from 6:00 , 8:00 p.m. at Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 East Dimple Dell Rd. (10600 S.), Sandy, Utah.
