On Sunday March 1, 2020, our dear mom, wife, grandma and friend, Margaret Lois Edwards (83) left this life peacefully in her South Carolina home surrounded by her daughters and husband. She has 5 children, 10 grand-children and 3 great-grandchildren. Life here will not be the same without her quiet steady support and love.

Margaret was born to Dan Monroe Lindsey and Margaret Lindsey on December 15, 1936 in Flint, Michigan. She attended BYU where she met and married Paul Morris Trane. She lived in the Salt Lake City area for over 30 years. In 1994 she married Nicolas J Teerlink and after his passing she moved to Hamilton MO. In 2006 she moved to Las Vegas to be with her daughter and grandchildren. At the age of (72) she met her sweetheart Deani Edwards and moved to Hartsville South Carolina. They have had 13 happy years together.

She was a devoted and humble follower of Christ who delighted in serving in any capacity she could. She was a talented seamstress and avid genealogist. She loved her time as an ordinance worker in the St. Louis, MO and Columbia, SC temples. She cherished her children and grandchildren and would travel to the opposite ends of the country on a regular basis to be of service and support to family, friends and relatives with her husband, Deani. We love you Mom.
