

Robert Norris Jennings

January 19, 1977 ~ January 3, 2024

Another angel got his wings on January 3, 2024. Robert Norris Jennings was born January 19, 1977 to Stanley and Dorthy Jennings in Salt Lake City, Utah.

From the moment he was born all he wanted to do was skate and play hockey. This love was so much a part of him that he was told he needed to learn how to walk before he could learn how to skate. As soon as he learned and the very moment he was old enough, he was always part of a team.

He participated in little leagues, high school teams, travel teams, hockey camps and all sorts of various tournaments all over the United States and in Canada.

He attended Skyline High School graduating in the class of 1995.

Shortly after graduation he started working for Arctic Circle restaurants. Starting as a cook he worked his way up to store manager and ran several locations all throughout the Salt Lake Valley, the longest at the Bountiful location for 14 years before transferring closer to home to the West Jordan location.

He got married in 2003 to his wife Jen and went on to have 2 children.

Rob was a mellow and caring individual who leaves a void in all of our lives.

Preceded in death by his mother Dorthy Ann Terry Jennings, and father Stanley Claire Jennings, and Aunt Patricia Wronski.

Survived by his wife, Jennifer Adrienne Harman Jennings (Jen), son; Christian Robert Jennings, daughter; Audrey Renee Jennings and Sister Dorthy Jennings (Dee).

Here we are on the highway.
Here we are on the road.
Here we are in the parking lot’s pink coke machine glow.
Here we are in the bedroom.
Here we are in the bed.
Here we are beside each other,
After everything we’ve said.
-Gordon Downie
