Ron was an amazing photographer, poet, and artist. He had impeccable taste in music books and film. He had a YouTube channel @MrCrowe66. He took photography classes at Salt Lake City community college. His photographs were so unique and made the viewer really think. He was a courier at IMC for 11 1/2 years. He really loved his job and made many friendships there. His nickname at work, was Crowbar.

Ron had a kind loving heart and was always there to help anyone with home and yard projects. He was great company, friend and was a fun shopping partner. He loved a good debate and always had interesting views. Ron just spent the last year having his house, gutted and remodeled meticulously picking out every little detail and was looking forward to enjoying his new home and getting back into photography.

He Is survived by his father Ronald Crowe. Proceeded in death by his mother Clarynn Sentker, uncle Craig Sentker and his grandmother Gerda Sentker, grandparents and Great grandparents.

He is greatly missed. Our hearts are so broken and will never be the same without him. Now we have one more angel to watch over us. We love and miss you, Ron. Or as the family called him, Ronnie
