

Ronald J. Rinaldi

January 26, 1961 ~ September 2, 2023

With heavy hearts we announce that Ronald J. Rinaldi passed away unexpectedly of a massive heart attack on September 2, 2023. Ron was born January 26, 1961 in Concord, MA to Richard and Verda Rinaldi. Ron graduated summa cum laude from Brigham Young University; served an LDS mission in Guatemala; was a Rhodes Scholar at Oriel College, University of Oxford, England; and graduated from Columbia University Law School, where he was an Editor of Articles for the Law Review. Ron served as a judicial clerk at the US Court of Appeals for the DC Circuit, Washington, D.C. For four years. Ron was Assistant Professor of Law at the University of Arizona Law School. He was an associate at law firms in Washington, D.C., New York City, NY, and Phoenix, AZ. He was an avid scratch golfer.

Ron was preceded in death by his sister Renee and is survived by his parents, brother Rick (Jaime), sister Susan Weldon, sister Rachael Beasley (Brett) and 23 nieces and nephews.

A private Celebration of Life was held September 6, 2023.