

Savannah Lee Hahn

August 21, 2002 ~ July 14, 2021

Heaven received a perfect Angel on July 14, 2021. Savannah Lee Hahn passed away in her parents arms surrounded by so much love. Savannah touched many lives with her courage and determination to continue her earthly journey despite her physical limitations, she was a real-life princess warrior. Although Savannah was unable to communicate verbally, those big blue eyes reminded us to always be kind, grateful and most importantly to love as hard as we can. Savannah's favorite hobby was snuggling, and she was very good at it. She always loved hanging out with her big sister, smiling at her big brother, and watching her little sisters be silly. Savannah enjoyed being outside on adventures, showing off her pink wheelchair and making all the other kids jealous over her light-up wheels. We will miss watching movies with her and sharing our cheesecake, Dr. Pepper, Cheetos, and any other treats you may have. You made us all such better people Savannah. Thank you for including us in your journey here on earth. May we find peace in knowing Savannah is free from all her life's challenges. We imagine her now running, playing, singing, twirling, and dancing throughout Heaven.

Savannah is survived by her mother Jennifer Hahn (Jeffrey Hobbs), father Chad Hahn (Crystal), siblings Cheyenne Hahn, Skylar Zitting, Caylee Hahn, Kelsey Hahn, and three fur buddies Sedona, Cisco, and Winston.
