

Scott Alan Landvatter

December 21, 1951 ~ April 19, 2022

Musician, educator, beloved brother, uncle, and friend, Scott Landvatter passed away on April 19th, 2022 at age 70 in Salt Lake. He is survived by a brother and 3 sisters and will be dearly missed.

Scott was born to Alfred & Bonnie Landvatter in SLC, Utah on December 21st, 1951. He had a great passion for people and music, attending the University of Utah studying Music Theory, Hindu-Christian studies, as well as Library and Information Science. While at the U of U, he was also the choir conductor at the Cathedral of the Madeleine for several years. After receiving his several Master's Degrees, he found a home and community in Chicago.

In Chicago, Scott shared his knowledge with bright young minds as he taught math and science to 5th graders in public schools, creating fun labs where students could test scientific theorems in true environments. He eventually found himself immersed in his love of music as he took a position as Bibliographer and Librarian for Music and Dance at the University of Chicago Library.

Scott lived a life full of friends and family who loved him very much, including his parents, siblings, and many nieces and nephews. Memories of scary stories told in the dark and neighborhood pranks will be remembered fondly along with music written and shared and long discussions about life, culture and art. He changed many lives, and we are all better for having known him.

We want to give special thanks to his friends, work colleagues and ward family in Chicago who provided so much service, love, and support. We also wish to thank the caregivers at Highland Care Center in Salt Lake City.
