

Stephanie Ismodes

February 1, 1994 ~ December 24, 2025

Stephanie Ismodes, born on February 1, 1994, in Gardena, California, ascended to heaven on December 24, 2025, at the age of 31.

Stephanie was the beloved daughter of Dulce Ayala and David Ismodes and the cherished eldest of eight siblings. Her role as the oldest sister was one she embraced with warmth and strength, offering guidance and love to her younger brothers and sisters throughout her life.

She shared a deep bond with her family, especially with her two nephews and three nieces. The love she had for them was immeasurable, she held them close to her heart and found immense joy in their presence. They were truly her world.

Known for her outgoing spirit, Stephanie approached life with optimism and joy. She lived each day fully and authentically, embracing every moment as it came. One of her greatest passions was cooking, a gift she often shared with those around her. Whether preparing meals for loved ones or experimenting with new recipes, she found happiness in the kitchen and expressed her love through food.

Stephanie touched many lives with her vibrant personality and generous heart. Her sassy strength and stubborn determination completed the beautiful person she was. She will be remembered not only for the love she gave but also for the light she brought into every room she entered.

Services will be held at Spring Creek 20th Ward (996 West Center Street Springville, UT 84663 United States) on Saturday, January 3rd. A viewing will be held from 11:00-12:00 PM, with the chapel service at the same location starting at 12:30PM. Graveside service to follow at Spanish Fork City Cemetery (420 S 400 E, Spanish Fork, UT 84660).
