

Sue Tueller Edwards

Dec. 4, 1946 ~ May 5, 2022

Inez Sue Tueller Edwards, 75, our loving wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend passed away peacefully, surrounded by family, on May 5th, 2022 in her Draper, Utah home.

Sue was born December 4th, 1946 in Brigham City, Utah, to Donald and Norma Tueller. Sue grew up in Idaho Falls, Idaho and graduated from Idaho Falls High School in 1965. While in high school, Sue met Rich Edwards and soon after high school they were married on August 21st, 1965. Rich and Sue were later sealed in the Jordan River Temple on February 14th, 1998. Rich and Sue have 3 loving children: Heidi Sue, Amy Lea, Richard Brady, 13 grandchildren, and 5 great grandchildren.

Sue worked in the fashion industry for many years working at Castleton's, ZCMI and Nordstrom - which is no surprise given that Sue was always known for her sense of style. Sue also worked many years at Equitable Life and Casualty. Sue would instantly connect with those she met, making friends wherever she went. Sue had a true gift for making all those she encountered feel loved and special. Throughout her life Sue made an impact on others with her kind heart and endearing personality, making countless life-long friends along the way.

Sue was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and had an unwavering testimony of the gospel. Sue's love of the Lord was evident in her lifelong example of selfless service, devotion, and unconditional love. Sue epitomized Christ-like love. Sue served faithfully in many callings within the church but her greatest calling in life was that of motherhood and she lived for her grandchildren.

Sue was always drawn to children, and they were always drawn to her. It was not only her tender heart, bright eyes and magnetic smile but also her big purse of treats that drew them in. Sue was fondly called 'Grandma Sue' by most everyone she knew both young and old.

As much as Sue loved her friends and those she met, she loved Rich and her kids and grandkids even more. She loved fiercely and unconditionally. Sue's top priority was always her family and she was intensely loyal to them. Sue rarely missed an opportunity to support and cheer on her kids or grandchildren. In Sue's mind, her grandkids could do no wrong and she found time to support them in all their endeavors. Sue was equally adored by her family. Everyone loved spending time with Grandma Sue. Sue spent an unmeasurable amount of time attending various sporting events, dance recitals, banquets, and competitions, as well as always finding time to spend individual time with each grandchild.

Sue's memory and legacy will live on as we strive each day to be a little more like Grandma Sue.

Sue is survived by her husband Rich, her children: Heidi (Steve) Dailey, Amy (Guy) Hardcastle, and Brady Edwards. Grandchildren: Stephanie (Steve Shafer) Dailey, Nichole (Ben) Bratt, Tanner (Gentry) Langston, Mickey (Cami Einerson) Dailey, Landon (Laynie McCaulie) Langston, Sadie (Trevor) Osborne, Savannah (Noah) Miller, Cole Hardcastle, Jada Hardcastle, McKaylee (Justen Smith) Edwards, Brinley Edwards, Alex Edwards, Olivia Edwards. Great Grandchildren: Riley, Noah, Sawyer, Briggs, and Cav. Siblings: Joan (Gary) Bennett, Brent (Kaye) Tueller, Craig (Cauleen) Tueller and Ted (Sande) Tueller. Sue was preceded in death by her parents: Donald and Norma (Hall) Tueller, and her brother, Robert Tueller.
