

Susan Bessie Morris Daniels

June 12, 1940 ~ November 23, 2021

Susan M. Daniels, 81, passed away on November 23,2021 in Sacramento, California. She was born on June 12,1940 to Jessie Ward Morris and Arvilla Mae Jensen in Oakland, California. She was the only girl in the family and had many wonderful stories of growing up with three brothers.

Susan was a faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. She was very generous and donated to many different charities without recognition. She loved wherever she was asked to serve. She served a Family History Mission for 2 years with her husband William D. Daniels. She owned and ran The LDS House of Books in Sacramento for over 20 years. She loved to knit and several of her grandchildren and great grandchildren are still wearing her sweaters and scarves today.

Susan loved to travel and visited several different countries with her dear friends and family. One of the most important things in her life was getting her family together often. She was diligent in planning family reunions, which got to be a big job as our family grew in numbers. She wanted to make sure we were all together and enjoying different experiences, from the beaches of Hawaii to the mountains of McCall, Idaho. Her family will always cherish those memories.

She was a wonderful, loving, mother and is survived by six children: Greg (Sharon) Daniels of Kamas, Utah; Scott (Carma) Daniels of Nampa, Idaho; Patricia Daniels of Arroyo Grande, California; Peter (Stacey) Daniels of Sacramento, California; Penny (Glade) Wilding of Nampa, Idaho; and Patrick (Selma) Daniels of LaJolla, California. She has 18 grandchildren and 31 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her father and mother, her three brothers and her husband.

Services will be held Friday, December 10, 2021, 11am, at the LDS Chapel located at 142 West 200 North, Salt Lake City, Utah, with a viewing prior starting at 9:30am. For those who wish to join virtually, you may do so with the following link:
