

Susan Jean Oliver

Dec. 31, 1955 ~ April 9, 2021

On April 9, 2021, our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and daughter, Susan Jean Campbell Oliver, returned to our Heavenly Father at age 65, passing suddenly from medical complications.

Susan was born on New Year's Eve and captured and displayed much of that passion for fun and excitement throughout her life. She graduated from Jordan High School in 1974 and married her high school sweetheart, Craig Oliver, on August 12, 1977. She was a staple figure in banking with most of her career being with Draper Bank & Trust from 1974-2005, which was by then purchased by Zions Bank. In conjunction with her career, she was also an avid champion and advocate for Women in Banking & Finance (WiBF), aimed at increasing women's leadership in the finance sector. Susan was known for her kind and loving demeanor and her amazing ability to work with people. She had a huge heart and cherished the smallest of reasons to laugh...and you could always pick her laugh out of a crowd!

Craig and Susan have been married for 44 years and had two sons. Their close relationship led to decades full of outdoor adventures to their favorite camping spots, riding ATV's and enjoying their growing family. She loved spending time with Craig and family going out to eat. For her, not so much eating, but cutting and moving food around her plate! However, she loved socializing nonetheless.

Susan is survived by her loving husband Craig Oliver, son Jace Oliver (Jennifer), son Tyler Oliver (Celesta), and 8 grandchildren. She is also survived by her mother Jeanne Pearson, sister Cheri Hubrich (Randy), and brother Terry Campbell. Preceded in death by her father Duane Campbell.
