Suzan Desotelle

Suzan Desotelle, daughter of Joseph Rex Reasch and LaNiel (Gardner) Reasch, passed away peacefully on December 11, 2024, in Atlanta, Georgia. Suzan was born in Lovell, Wyoming, on June 13, 1954. She was the oldest of four children.

Suzan graduated from Stevens High School in Rapid City, South Dakota, where she played the bass clarinet and performed in the concert band. She then attended Brigham Young University and studied music. Suzan was an accomplished pianist and vocalist.

She loved her people, especially her nieces and nephews and their children. She enjoyed keeping up to date on all their activities and events through phone calls, photos and videos. She will always be known as “great, Great, GREAT Aunt Suzie” to her nieces and nephews. Suzan enjoyed taking her mother on trips and showing her the world. Suzan loved her close friends and business associates in Atlanta who supported and loved her.

She had a great business and entrepreneur mind. She spent a larger portion of her career in the aviation industry where she was known as one of the hardest working individuals in this field. This passion led her along with partners and individually to start and successfully own and operate businesses in the industry.

She was a die-hard Atlanta Braves, Georgia Tech, and Georgia Bulldog fan. She enjoyed watching them play and chatting about them with other sports fans in the family. She excitedly cheered for the Braves as they won the 2021 World Series.

She was proceeded in death by her parents, Rex and LaNiel, and baby sister, Kara Rae.

She is survived by sisters, Rhonda Hatch (Brent), Joleen Zimmer (Michael), and brother, Larry (Bobbi) Reasch. She is an aunt to eleven nieces and nephews, and twenty-five grand nieces and nephews.

You will always be loved, and you will never be forgotten.
