

Suzanne Heinitz Dodge

June 17, 1941 ~ May 12, 2024

Suzanne Heinitz Dodge, beloved mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully in the presence of her four children on May 12, 2024, in Herriman, Utah. She was born on June 17, 1941, in Helena, Montana, to Johann and Gertrude Lee Butler Heinitz.

Suzanne's life was one of love, compassion, and unwavering strength. She dedicated herself to her family, leaving behind a legacy of kindness and resilience. For the past three years, she found comfort and joy in the company of her daughter, April Dodge Anthony, in Riverton, Utah.

Suzanne was known for her diverse interests and passions. She enjoyed sewing, tending to her garden, singing, playing cards with friends and family, and scrapbooking. She also had a special love for quilting and genealogy. Suzanne cherished spending time with her grandchildren, creating lasting bonds and precious memories together. One of her beloved traditions was giving each grandchild a Christmas ornament, a symbol of her love and thoughtfulness. Additionally, she found great joy in developing flower arrangements, expressing her creativity and love for beauty through this art form.

She is survived by her cherished children: Curtis Dodge (Shanna), Robin Marshall (Ward), April Anthony (Paul), and Aaron Dodge. Suzanne's presence in their lives brought warmth, laughter, and unconditional love.

Suzanne will also be dearly missed by her grandchildren: Mikayla, Megan, Marshal, Joshua, Jordon, Tyson, Dillon, Emily, Stacey, Kristopher, Kelsie, Austin, Joseph, Damien, and Arianna.

Her legacy further extends to her great-grandchildren: AaLeeyah, Zion, Zendaya, AaRyah, Ainsley, Kayda, Tyler, Trevor, Madelyn, Clara, Hazyl, Jak, Silas, and Roman.

Suzanne was preceded in death by her parents, Johann and Gertrude Lee Butler Heinitz, her brothers Paul, Raymond, and Victor, and her sisters Rebecca, Irene, Glenelle, and Redamae. She was also preceded by her grandson, Tyler Gregory Poulson.

Throughout her life, Suzanne touched the hearts of many with her gentle spirit and generous nature. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
