

SuzAnne Seely McOmie

Nov. 8, 1946 ~ Sept. 3, 2021

SuzAnne Seely McOmie passed away on September 3, 2021, in West Jordan, Utah. She was 74 years old. She was born to Elvin Anthony Seely and Edna Maragret Rowley in Price, Utah. She has an identical twin sister Kathleen Whites Spurr. She was raised in Cedar City, Utah and moved to Lander, Wyoming in high school. After graduating Lander Valley High School she received an LPN degree at Casper College, later to receive her RN from Weber State University. She worked for Intermountain Healthcare for 35 years. She worked at Logan Hospital, LDS Hospital, Cottonwood Hospital, and Ask a Nurse before retiring from IHC Health Plans. She was a fantastic nurse who spent years serving others in Intensive Care, Med Surg and in insurance approving claims.

While attending high school she met the love of her life, David J McOmie. They were married for time and eternity on August 25, 1966, in the Salt Lake Temple. They had just celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary with a trip to Southern Utah, one of SuzAnne's favorite places. They raised their 7 children, including 2 sets of twins, in West Jordan, Utah. She had many callings within the LDS church over the years.

SuzAnne loved spending time with family and especially loved family trips and vacations. She enjoyed camping, fishing, and traveling. SuzAnne loved Southern Utah. Zion National Park was one of her favorite places, and she always looked forward to spending the Easter holiday with the Stock and Lucas families.

SuzAnne is survived by her husband, David J McOmie, her twin sister Kathleen (Richard) Spurr, her seven children: Amy (Chad) Nordgren, Mark McOmie, Sherry (Gary) Glick, John (Laurel) McOmie, Emily (Andrew) Draper, Tom (Julee) McOmie, Jenny (Brian) Diederich, 19 grandchildren, 2 step grandchildren, and many beloved nieces and nephews. She is also survived by extended family Karalee (Mike) Salvesen, with whom she became close with during her time as a nurse in Logan, Utah, and members of the Stoddard family who adopted her and her family into their own.
