Wayne Taylor Cederlof

April 8, 1944 ~ May 29, 2016

Wayne Taylor Cederlof passed away peacefully on May 29, 2016 at the Bountiful Legacy. He was born on April 8, 1944 to Albert Philip Cederlof and Lucile Genet Murphy Cederlof in Salt Lake City. He married ReNae Baxter, later divorced. A daughter from that union, Tammy, married David Waite and they are the proud parents of two children Noah and Shelby.

Wayne attended East High School in Salt Lake City and went on to become a Master Printer. He spent several years in the Air Force Reserve with training as an engine mechanic. He had a fascination with aircraft and held a private pilot license and spent many enjoyable hours flying throughout the west. Wayne survived a serious stroke when in his 30's but remained cheerful and thoughtful throughout his remaining years. He was a High Priest in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Wayne is survived by a daughter Tammy Waite (David), brothers: Clark (Patricia), Reid (Robin) and sister Gay Brown (Allen). He was preceded in death by his parents and brother Brent.

The family expresses appreciation to Dr. Gary Holland and the kind and patient staff at the Bountiful Legacy where Wayne lived the past four years.

A graveside service will be held on Tuesday, June 7th, 12:00 pm, at the Salt Lake City Cemetery, 4th Avenue and ‚ÄòN' Street, with a gathering at Larkin Mortuary, 260 East South Temple, beginning at 11:00 am.
