David Joseph "Fletch" Fletcher passed away at home on the morning of July 8, 2020. Born in Southport, England on November 17, 1961 to George and Kathleen Fletcher; David was their third boy of four, followed by four sisters. As a young man, David enjoyed messing about with his brothers and looking after his sisters.

Their family grew by adding daughters Laura, 26, Stephanie, 21, and Olivia, 20. In 2001, David and his family made the move to America, where he coined himself the SLC Brit. He continued in his chosen career of car sales, enjoying success for over 19 years.

In recent years David extended his family to include his partner Anita Johnson and her children, Kayla, 25, Jasmine, 20, and grandchild Grayson, 3. He loved spending his free time at home with his family, cats and dogs, barbecuing in his back garden, and snoozing on the couch.
