Tara Davis, a beloved wife, daughter, sister, second mother, and friend, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones. Born August 14, 1973, in Hillsborough County, Florida, Tara was the cherished daughter of Lucille Madeleine Moore. As a child, Tara moved to Mississippi, where she fell in love with the warm breeze and beauty of the Gulf Coast—its spirit and charm remained with her always. She later moved to Utah and graduated from Cyprus High School in Magna in 1991.

In September 1997, Tara met the love of her life, Christopher Lynn Davis. Their connection was instant and enduring, and on June 17, 2000, they married—starting a beautiful life together filled with laughter, family, and unwavering love.

Tara was preceded in death by her beloved mother Lucille Madeleine Moore; grandparents Lynn and Dee Davis; Sherrill Zumwalt; her mother-in-law Kellee Davis; and a host of treasured fur babies who were dearly loved and deeply missed. She is survived by her devoted husband, Christopher Davis and beloved dog Benny Blue; her siblings Henry Moore, Rosa Hollifield, Yvonne Mouton, Cheryl Harmes (husband Peter), Sean Moore (wife Carrie); and in-laws Brett and Michelle Davis, Tyler (wife Jenny Schwemmer), Britnee (husband Devin Grant), Misti Davis, Jamee Davis, Lilly Davis, Chantelle Davis, and Dakota Davis. To many, Tara was more than family—she was a second mother, especially to Bethany Taylor (husband Kenneth), Amy Poulsen (husband Cody), Timothy Mouton, (wife Lisa Mouton) Her legacy of love continues through her grandchildren Leo Taylor, and Gracie Taylor; and through the lives of many nieces and nephews: Noah, Grayson, Easton, Stetson, Oaklee, Bexlee, Kanyon, Kyla, Henry, Emma, William and Luci Baker (children Elena and Cora).

Tara was beloved by all who knew her. She had an unparalleled gift for making people feel at home. Her warmth, generosity, and extraordinary hosting skills turned every gathering into a place of joy, belonging, and love. She had a deep passion for reading—especially the works of Dean Koontz—and found joy and escape in the pages of his stories. Tara was also famously obsessed with the TV show Supernatural, lovingly referring to the Winchester brothers as “her boys.” Tara’s life was a testament to kindness, compassion, and unconditional love. She will be missed more than words can ever express, and her spirit will live on in the countless lives she touched.
