Terrile Tanner Black, beloved wife, mother, daughter, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on September 1, 2025, after a courageous battle with brain cancer. She was 56 years old.

Born January 8, 1969, in Salt Lake City, Utah, Terrile was the daughter of Collin and Norma Tanner. From an early age, she radiated joy, kindness, and an unmistakable light that touched everyone around her. She was known for her bright smile, distinctive laugh, and a bubbly, positive personality that made people feel truly seen and loved.

Terrile married the love of her life, Andrew Greggory Black, and together they raised three children: Tanner (Brilee), Terran, and Trina. Her greatest pride and joy was her family. She never missed an opportunity to share stories of her children's accomplishments and adventures, and she poured her heart into supporting and celebrating them in all they did.

Terrile's life was defined by generosity and thoughtfulness. Whether it was sending flowers, balloons, cookies, or heartfelt notes, she had an incredible gift for lifting others in moments of struggle. She cherished one-on-one connections, enjoying countless lunches and visits with family and friends, making everyone feel valued and loved.

As the eldest of six children, Terrile was a natural leader and organizer. Her five younger brothers and their families could always count on her to arrange activities, birthdays, and family traditions—especially the cherished annual Bear Lake gatherings. She had a love of sports and community, playing and organizing family softball and volleyball games, coaching volleyball as her children grew, and leading women's and young women's athletics at the stake and regional levels for the LDS Church in West Jordan for many years.

Terrile's legacy is one of love, laughter, faith, and service. She was admired for her strength, selflessness, and unwavering devotion to her family and community. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Terrile is survived by her husband, Andrew; her children, Tanner (Brilee), Terran, and Trina; her parents, Collin and Norma Tanner; and her five younger brothers and their families.
