April 23, 1981 ~ September 1, 2023

TJ Migliore passed away unexpectedly on September 1, 2023. He was just 42 years of age. The family is deeply saddened by his sudden death. TJ was born on April 23, graduated from Alta High School, and lived in Sandy, Utah for most of his life.

When growing up he was very skilled at riding and training horses, looked forward to fishing with his Grandpa Gene and riding dirt bikes with his Uncle Jay. TJ was an avid Indianapolis Colts fan. He loved spending time with his girlfriend, Lety Le Bleu, and watching football. He enjoyed working for a construction company owned by his childhood best friend, Matt Middlemiss.

TJ is survived by his mother Amy Migliore, Scott Migliore (father), his aunts and uncles Karla (Neal) Marlow, Dana (Marty) Gibbs, Jay Migliore (Susie Gilbert), and his cousins Jesse (Danielle) Gibbs, Justin Gibbs, Amos Parlante, and Clara, Nick, and Gabe Marlow.

The family expresses their deep gratitude to longtime friend, Paula Springer, for her unwavering support and love through this difficult time.
