

Toni Marie Tenwolde

May 30, 1974 ~ October 5, 2021

Toni Marie Curtis Tenwolde, 47, passed away unexpectedly from this life on October 5, 2021. Toni was born on May 30, 1974, in Murray, Utah to Byron Wayne and Katherine Therese Cherpeski Curtis. Byron passed away when Toni was 3 years old. She was raised and loved by her step-father, James Anthony Katzdorn.

Toni had a love of the mountains. She and her husband, Eric, went on regular camping trips and enjoyed spending time in the mountains. She had a love of seafood, often eating all different varieties and trying new things. Above all else however, was her love of NASCAR. Toni and Eric loved making trips down to Las Vegas each year to the race track. They would watch the races together. She was a huge fan of Jeff Gordon. She also enjoyed the NFL, especially the New England Patriots. Tom Brady was one of her favorite players.

Toni is survived by her husband, Eric Tenwolde, her parents, Katherine and James Katzdorn, nieces, nephews and many friends who will all miss her dearly.
