Calvin Labrum Hoskins

October 29, 1952 ~ November 9, 2016

Calvin Labrum Hoskins, age 63, passed away after a short illness, November 9, 2016, surrounded by his loving family. Cal was born in Salt Lake City on October 29, 1952 to John Rex Hoskins and Evelyn Labrum.

He was the second of three children, raised in Murray, Utah where he learned the value of hard work at the early age of 8, running his own paper route on his bike. He loved being outside, riding motorcycles, deer hunting with his dad at Gooseberry, fishing at Strawberry, family holidays at Trial Lake making life-long friends. He graduated from Granite High School and joined the Air National Guard. He continued to work hard joining Rio Tinto Kennecott and running a brick laying business on the side. He loved his family and spending time with them, especially the babies, he took pride in his yard, and shoveling the neighbors walks. He was a faithful and devoted member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He married his sweetheart Sharon Williams on May 8, 1993 and they have one daughter Tayci Rae Hoskins.

He is preceded in death by his parents and brother Brian Hoskins.
