G. Harlan Clark

March 21, 1933 ~ August 4, 2018

Harlan Clark, 85, of Salt Lake City, Utah, suddenly passed away on Aug. 4, 2018 from a pulmonary embolism. He was born on March 21, 1933 in Coalville, Utah to Leonard and Edith Clark.

He graduated from the University of Utah and received his doctorate degree from Columbia University and served as an elementary school principal in Salt Lake City and Millburn, N.J.

Harlan served as an LDS mission president in Mongolia from 1999-2002.

He served full time missions for the LDS Church in The Great Lakes Mission, Mongolia Mission, Tonga Mission, Manhattan Temple Mission, and the N.J. Morristown Mission. His service missions included Salt Lake City East, Welfare Square, and currently the Palmer Court Inner-City Branch.

He loved serving as a Salt Lake Temple worker.

Harlan and his wife, Mary Alice Jeppson, were married in the Salt Lake Temple and recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Alice Jeppson, and 6 children: Merrill Clark, (Cynthia), Janae Anderson (Kay), Debbilyn Day, (David), Davin Clark, (Elizabeth), Christina McClure (James), and Jamon Clark (Rachel) . He has 24 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren.

Funeral Services will be held on Thursday, Aug. 9 at 1 p.m. Visiting with friends will be at 10:30 AM to 12:45. at the Emigration Canyon Ward at 2795 East Crestview Drive in Salt Lake City, 84108.

He loved everyone and wants you to know,

\"You Are a Winner!\"

In lieu of flowers please donate to the LDS general missionary fund.