May 7, 1941 ~ March 2, 2025

Vickie Kay Shelton Joy, eighty-three, passed away March 2nd, 2025, peacefully. She was born May 07, 1941, to Ruby Garrett Shelton and Paul Shelton in Salt Lake City Utah.

She attended high school at South High in Salt Lake City, Utah. She married her high school sweetheart, John Richard Joy, "The Big Guy." They spent fifty-five wonderful, caring years together and lived life to the fullest.

Vickie was an extremely giving person who opened her heart and home to everyone. A beautiful woman, now free from physical and mental constraints. Vickie taught us all how to laugh and love unconditionally. A bonus mother and grandmother to so many. Her spunky happiness told all that met her just how much she absolutely loved them. An absolute angel on earth. Vickie will be greatly missed.

She is survived by her four children, Christine Arthur (Raymond), Stacie Brown (Kendall), Brian Joy (Debbie) and Jason Thomas Joy, eight grandchildren, and six great grandchildren and her brother Curt (Jan) Shelton and sister Kim Ahlstrom.

Preceded in death by her husband John Joy and her mother Ruby Garrett Shelton and stepmother Darlene and father Paul Shelton, her sisters Claudia and Carol and brother Richard Shelton and great grandson Tito Lozano. The family would like to express their deepest gratitude to the dedicated staff at BeeHive Home for all their loving care and also the compassionate team at Active Home Health and Hospice for the exceptional care and support provided to Vickie during her final days.
