Marva Jean Daley

October 17, 1944 ~ February 6, 2014

Marva Jean Daley, 69, returned to her Heavenly Father on February 6, 2014. She was born October 17, 1944 to George Denver Daley and Marva Harman. Marva lived a life full of service to her Heavenly Father.

She served a mission to England and dedicated her life to blessing others and putting all other\s needs before her own. She worked for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints for 30 years, in the Family History Dept. She loved to travel and have fun with her friends. She sacrificed much to care for her Mother for many years and always looked for ways to bless the lives of those around her. She was always the peacemaker. She served in many church callings and loved teaching the youth of the church. She will be greatly missed by those who loved and served her.

She is preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her siblings, Diane (Ross) Carn, Naperville, IL; Judd (Pat) Casper, SLC; Richard (Bobby) Casper, SLC; Missy (Ron) Hockemier, SLC and many nieces and nephews that love and admire her. She is also survived by her step-dad Delmar (Grace) Casper, Spokane, WA. Special thanks to Julie Franson and IHC Hospice for their care of Marva.
