She served a service mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at the Bishops' Storehouse, proudly wearing a missionary badge. Later in life; yard sales, counted cross stitch, puzzles, and card games were among Wanda's favorite pastimes as well as Bingo every week at the Sandy Senior Center. Her enthusiasm for life and her eagerness to engage in these activities brought happiness to those around her.

Wanda will be deeply missed by her loved ones. She is survived by her daughter Tammy Gibbons; and her sons Robert Bowen and Richard Bowen. She is also survived by her grandchildren Benjamin Gibbons (Courtney), Joshua Gibbons, Staci Biolo (Daniel), David Gibbons (Nicole), James Bowen (Sydney), Brandon Bowen (Marissa), Said Cruz, Louise Bowen, Nicole Bowen, John Bowen; her brother Mark Mapes; and 20 great grandchildren.

Wanda was preceded in death by her children John Dean Bowen, Kimala Pickle, Deborah Hope; her father Robert Charles Dutton; her mother Mary Amy Stauffer; her sister Amy Carolyn Dutton; and her brothers Robert Charles Dutton, Lawrence Leonard LeFave, and Daniel Arthur LeFave.

Wanda's faith was important to her, and she worshipped at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She found solace and strength in her religious community.
