

Wayne Edward Robbins

July 19, 1937 ~ October 22, 2024

Wayne Edward Robbins passed away on October 22, 2024, in Draper, Utah, surrounded by loving family. He was born in Ogden, Utah on July 19, 1937, to Joseph Edward and Kate Helen Johnson Robbins. He was preceded in death by his parents and his siblings Lamar (Jan) Robbins, Marilyn (Blair) Beck, JoAne Robbins and Frank Koller (brother-in-law). He was also preceded in death by two infant children, Jennifer and Douglas.

Wayne is survived by his sister, Margene Koller, his spouse Martha Pauline Mace Wilkinson Robbins and his children, Kristine (Robert) Stockton, Jeffrey Robbins, Patricia Strout, Scott (Michelle) Wilkinson, Kenn Wilkinson and Mark Wilkinson, as well as many loving grandchildren and great grandchildren. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Wayne graduated from Weber State University and San Jose State University in engineering and spent his career at IBM Technology. He also spent time as a submarine missile tracker at Cape Kennedy, now known as Cape Canaveral.

Wayne loved his family. He loved to tease. He loved coming up with fun nicknames for his grandchildren as they were born. He was always so willing to support and attend any activities that his children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews were involved in.

Wayne loved to golf. He loved to travel. Some of his favorite places were Yellowstone, Australia, Hawaii, Germany, Mexico, Disneyworld, and NASA.

Wayne was the world’s Best Handyman. He could fix anything – plumbing, electrical, vehicles, carpentry – you name it. The family benefitted from his kind services often.

Wayne was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He was a disciple and follower of Jesus Christ. He served in many capacities in the Church and in his ward. He was sealed to Martha Robbins in the Jordan River Temple on November 19, 2003.

Thank you, Wayne, for taking such good care of all of us. We look forward to the time when we will see you again. Love you!!
