

Werner Roland (RED) Hallman

April 17, 1935 ~ May 21, 2024

Werner Roland Hallman born April 17, 1935, and died May 21, 2024.

Werner (RED) Hallman passed May 21, 2024, of health issues.

Werner grew up on the lower East side of SLC and went to East High School. He was commonly called Red as he has redish hair and the nick name stayed with him his whole life. He was a well-liked man with a fun personality and always had a joke to share. He was known as a jokester and overall fun person. He left school to join the Marine Corps in 1951 and served there until 1954. In the military he was trained to work on airplanes and heavy equipment. He loved working on mechanical stuff. After the military he got right into heavy equipment repair and as part of his life he was a long haul truck driver. Finally tired of being away from home and family he left truck driving to become a heavy equipment mechanic. Worked for Shoker Construction for many years then went to a Cement Company as their top mechanic. He was a very active member along with our mother Marion Hallman with the National Railroad Historical society. They really enjoyed all the time around railroad buffs and friends.

He lived in Murray, Utah with his wife Marion V. Hallman from 1968 to present.
