He converted to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in his late teens. Wes and Charlotte "Sherry" Martin were childhood sweethearts and were married and sealed for all eternity on September 16, 1958 in the Logan temple. Wes was a loving husband to Sherry and the proud father of six children.

Wes earned his Bachelor's from the University of Washington, and his Master's and Doctorate in Computer Science from UCLA. He was an active member of the church holding many different callings.
