In 1991, he moved his family to Tucson, Arizona and later to Mesa, where he worked exclusively with mines in Arizona and Mexico and also worked on perfecting his "Spanish". He was successful in business because of his ability to relate to all those with whom he came into contact. He made people feel comfortable with his sense of humor, sarcasm and talent for cracking a joke.

Bill was always willing to listen and give advice. "Uncle Bill" was adored by his many nieces and nephews! He always maintained a rare and loving relationship with his siblings; Lois (Ray)Smith, Vivian (Neil)McCarthy), Mary (Norm)Davis, Evelyn (Doug) Anderson, Ginny (Larry) Christensen, and Ron (Pam) Call. He was happy for the time he had to spend with them over the past 18 months since he moved back to Draper, Utah.

Bill married Linda Winspear in Salt Lake City on June 23, 1969. They were married for 52 years and have 4 children. He always showed his love and expressed his pride for each of them and was very supportive of all of their activities and accomplishments. He spent many years coaching his sons' soccer teams and teaching them to have fun! He was very protective of his daughters and everybody knew it! He was always quick with a compliment and to say I love you. He was thrilled with each new grandchild that came along and delighted in their antics.

Bill is survived by his wife, Linda; children, Carrie (Matt), Joel(Kris), Courtney (Justin), of Draper, Utah; Jonathan (Keli) of Gilbert, Arizona and Heidi Gibson, from a previous relationship.
