

William Barrett Sutton

February 26, 1943 ~ December 25, 2022

William Barrett Sutton slipped away early Christmas morning in his home in Salt Lake City. Barry was strong, caring, generous, loyal and he had a positive impact on the lives of so many during his years on this earth.

He was born on February 26, 1943 to William Ross and Maxine Pulham Sutton. Ross passed away when Barry was only 6 years old. This impacted his focus on family which was the true passion of his life. He felt so blessed to have found his beautiful wife Dawn Michelle Painter. They were married in 1967 in the Salt Lake Temple and together they started a large and loving family. Barry was adored and greatly respected by his 7 children, Kimberly (Paul) Van Dyke, Christopher (Emma) Sutton, Amy (Ryan) Forsyth, Mark (Elisha) Sutton, Elizabeth (Straton) Christensen, Katie (Atieli) Blaylock, and Carrie (Scott) Miller. He was a proud, doting and supportive Grandfather to Barrett (Bronwyn), Parker, Harrison, Amanda (Connor), Jordan (Annie), Olivia (Asi) Carson, Sawyer, Porter, Hailey, Britton, Miranda, Logan, Cannon, Hunter, Jacob (Lisa), Abby (Michael), Sydney, Davis, Stockton (Kenzy), Brinley, Campbell, Beckham, Presley, Brooklyn, Callie, Marley, Brody, Gibson, Hudson, Maizey, Warner, Berkeley and Kimball plus Great Grandson Brooks Sutton Hoff. His presence in their daily life will be greatly missed.

Barry was a lifelong member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and served in the New Zealand South Mission from 1962-1964. He impressed the importance of faith in Christ on all of his children and grandchildren. He also led by example and had a strong testimony of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

In 1970 Barry started a small carpet company, Western Wholesale Flooring, that grew into a thriving enterprise. He was very well respected and a leader in the industry. All of his sons, daughters, and many sons & daughter in-laws and grandchildren have or continue to work in his company. His family will work together to carry on his legacy, Sports were a major part of Barry's life. He loved playing basketball and tennis and also enjoyed watching his grandkids sports at his alma maters, East High School and the University of Utah. He also spent many hours at Foothill Baseball watching all his grandsons who played in the league throughout the years.

His greatest joys in life came from spending time with his family both at home in Utah and across the state of California. He was known by many titles but none were greater than Husband, Dad and Grandpa.
