In school he lived his passion playing and excelling in sports like baseball and water polo. It was there he and his family met very dear friends that led them to join the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

After his mission he went on to live with friends in Utah. These friends then introduced him to his loving and dedicated wife of 37 years, Holley Whiteley. They were married in the Salt Lake City, UT temple.

They spent their lives raising their 4 children. Bill loved watching movies, playing sports, and dominating at card games with his kids.

He was a very active and enthusiastic person that could make friends with anyone. His love and passion for baseball connected him deeply to his children and people across the world. He took great pride in coaching and sharing his knowledge about baseball.
