While volunteering for the U.S.O. at Hill Field, she met her future husband, Sanford Bray Pierce who has preceded her in death. Sheila played an active role in the upbringing of her four granddaughters, sharing in the joy of their lives took Sheila to Southern California, Southport, England and Houston, Texas. Upon returning to her beloved Salt Lake City Sheila resided at Friendship Manor where she brightened everyone's days with her floral arrangements, crochet, and embroidery. She also enjoyed baking special treats for her neighbors. She had a great sense of humor. We will miss her laughter, kindness, creativity and many talents. Her spirit carries on in daughter; Marian Elizabeth Pena and son-in-law Frank Anthony Pena, daughter; Rebecca Jane Pierce-Fletcher, and in her four granddaughters; Andree Helena Mikulay, Laura Jane Fletcher, Stephanie Rose Fletcher, and Olivia Kathleen Fletcher..
