Anne Marie Heaps Barlow

October 12, 1940 ~ February 11, 2015

Anne Marie Heaps Barlow passed away peacefully on February 11, 2015 in Sandy, Utah. She will be remembered for living a full life with a contagious, positive attitude and sharing her gifts wherever she went.

Anne was born October 12, 1940 in Culver City, California. She was raised in Southern California. She attended Brigham Young University where she met the love of her life, Max G. (Jerry) Barlow.

Anne's mission in life was to be a mother. She raised 14 children and taught them to love music, art, reading, tumbling and have fun. She was a talented artist and loved math and gymnastics. She loved the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and was a lifelong, faithful member.

Anne is survived by her sisters Sylvia (Gary) Harnagel, Donna (Terry) Bridson, and Rachel (Mike) Holmstrom, children Joni (Jeff), Jane (Tim), Holly, Sharon (Bryan), Burton, Susan (Jeff), Mary (Greg), Jonathan, Linda (Dan), Robert, Matthew (Pao), Kacey (Brett) and Carson (Cindy), 35 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren. Preceded in death by her parents Wallace and Marie Heaps, siblings Mark, Peggy and Cliff Heaps and daughter Wanda Barlow.

Services will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 21, 2015 at The Chateau at Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 East Dimple Dell Road (10600 South), Sandy, Utah. Online condolences welcomed at www.larkincares.com.
