Her parents, Martin and Minna Meiszus; her husband, Hans Erich Erwin Kindt; her sons, Siegfried Kurt Meyer and Andreas Meyer; and her brothers, Siegfried Albert Meiszus and Henry Martin Meiszus, precede her in death.

As a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints all her life, Helga served in her church callings with diligence and love. Some of her favorite callings include den mother, name extractor, Relief Society counselor and president, and teaching in primary, Sunday school, and Relief Society.

Helga worked hard all her life. In Germany, she worked in a café, a pharmacy, a jewelry store, an optics shop, and as a seamstress. When she came to America, she held a job in accounting for the LDS church for 27 years, in addition to many simultaneous second and third jobs to support her family. She also worked for her son's company, Siegfried's Delicatessen, for many years.

Helga loved gardening and was known to spend all day weeding and planting during the summer. She took great pride in her home and her yard and loved to welcome visitors. She always made time for others.

All who knew her will miss Helga. She had a wonderful sense of humor and loved all she met.
