

Grandpa always plays tennis
 And works at the movie theater just for fun
 He looks like he is forty
 Thirty years younger than his age
 Probably the same as his liver
 His hair is jet black, thick and healthy grass
 He is nice to everyone
 He is always happy
 He has energy from his happiness
 He wins at tennis from his energy
 He has a perfect yard and a perfect car
 Modeled after himself
 He was in Korea for the war
 The only place he battled were the courts
 He plays tennis some days
 And he works at the movie theater others
 He loves my writing
 No matter what the grade
 He loves his work
 He loves me more
